Kettleman City Assignment

You will read the Kettleman City Case and answer this question in relation to the protagonist, Bill Zumwalt. In light of the diverse stakeholders involved in this case and their motivations and interests which do not always overlap:

what are Bill Zumwalt’s options for his next move at the end of the case you have read, and what approach do you recommend he take?

what can or should Bill Zumwalt do to manage the permitting process? To what extent can he define his role?