

Choose the best answer to the following questions.

1. A grid is
  - a. blocks that create a whole
  - b. a method of organization
  - c. a way of mapping
  - d. a system to achieve variety in compositions
2. The grid functions best when
  - a. you are able to read it
  - b. it creates strong lines on the page
  - c. it helps establish relationships
  - d. answers b and c
3. When using a grid
  - a. every edge must be defined
  - b. most elements should line up to the grid
  - c. some elements can break the grid
  - d. nothing should line up to the grid
4. A perimeter is defined as
  - a. almost a meter in length
  - b. close to the color periwinkle
  - c. a contour
  - d. the main axis
5. Using a grid creates
  - a. chaos
  - b. unity
  - c. boring compositions
  - d. variety
6. A word can be expressed visually by using:
  - a. literal meaning
  - b. metaphor
  - c. formal attributes
  - d. all of the above
7. In a composition, unity and variety produce:
  - a. rhythms
  - b. interest
  - c. contrast
  - d. lots of things to look at
8. An objective of Project 5 is
  - a. to explore the union of form + content
  - b. explore appropriate, compelling, and unique visualizations
  - c. to introduce the use of grids
  - d. all of the above
9. Process is an important part of design because:
  - a. the professor says so
  - b. it allows obvious solutions to get filtered out
  - c. designers like to use lots of paper
  - d. we are never successful on the first try
10. Hopefully, this class has honed your sense of:
  - a. visual judgement
  - b. conceptual ingenuity
  - c. oral communication
  - d. all of the above