

Queries

Reformulation, distributions, and processing

"Engineers there, who must measure just about everything, had noticed that query lengths were becoming longer as we turned into a nation of research librarians."

Long Tail of Search

university of washington information school

Reformulation

Search

