Guidelines for Pharmacy 511 Student Behaviors While at Service Sites

Students at service learning sites must agree to the following behavioral guidelines at service learning sites.

1. All information disclosed by clients, including identity, is kept confidential, unless otherwise stated by the sponsoring agency.
2. Interact with clients in a manner that affirms tolerance for diversity and lifestyle issues.
3. Interact with clients in a manner that affirms respect and dignity.
4. Follow the guidelines given by the sponsoring agency.
5. Keep all commitments made to the agency including scheduled hours of service, meetings, and telephone contacts. Punctuality and allowance for adequate notification should a schedule conflict arise are expected.
6. Any difficulties that may arise with interpersonal relations between participants should be referred to the site supervisor who will intervene on behalf of the agency.
7. Contact the Carlson Center (serve@u.washington.edu) as soon as possible for difficulties with a site or site supervisor.
8. All academic supervision is conducted by the University of Washington, School of Pharmacy Pharm 511 course masters; therefore, contact Karan Dawson or Don Downing regarding academic requirements and questions.
