

Announcements

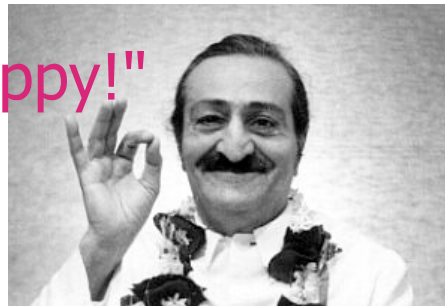

- EXAM I is this Thursday! See class website for sample questions
 - Multiple choice, 10 questions (similar to, but a bit harder than quiz)
 - Focus will be on concepts, not memorized facts
 - Content based on lectures, readings, quizzes through today
 - YOU must bring your own standard mark-sense sheet, and #2 pencil
 - No calculator needed!
 - NO laptops, ipods or cellphones may be used during the exam
 - ONLY covers material through today (session 12)
 - All lecture slides have been posted on the website (today's slides will be posted tonight)
 - Designed to be easy if you have paid attention and kept up with class
 - You can use the full class hour, but will probably take less time
 - NO MAKEUP EXAMS !
 - No excuse letters or notes needed (or wanted) - you can miss either exam for any reason
 - Only your best score (of 2 exams) is used, so if you miss one, you only lose the chance to improve your grade
 - But... don't miss both!

Announcements

- EXAM I is this Thursday!
- See class website for example questions, and informational slides shown yesterday
 - Open NOTES (only; do not bring laptops or books)
 - You are NOT responsible for any material in readings that has not yet been discussed in lectures 1–12
 - YOU must bring your own standard mark-sense sheet, and #2 pencil
 - Questions will be easy if you have paid attention in class
 - Exams are meant to motivate you to study, not to scare you

Clickers

- Tip: Carry your clicker in a hard case (eg, glasses case)
 - Prevents random buttons being pushed while in your backpack
 - If your clicker response does not show up, try reprogramming it for this room's channel number (02):
 - Press and HOLD down-arrow, until light turns red
 - Enter 0, then 2
 - Press and HOLD down arrow, until light STOPS BLINKING
- If you haven't registered your clicker, do it today!
 - I can't correlate your answers with your name unless you do
 - Unregistered clicker = zero quiz scores
- No more handwritten answers: clicker is a required item
 - From now on, if you forget to bring your clicker
 - The experience will help you remember in future...
 - Don't worry, you can miss a few quizzes without loss – only your best 7 scores will count
