

8. [the full question below includes additional information not on the exam sheet]

Bethany: We should abolish the Internal Revenue Service (IRS).

Maria: That's a terrible idea. Without the IRS to enforce our tax laws, many people would start cheating on their taxes.

Bethany: Can't you see that our taxes are too high, and we need greater accountability for the IRS?

Two weeks later, while talking to a new person, Bethany says, "We should abolish the IRS."

13. the question starts on p. 1 of the exam but carries into p. 2. Make sure you read the part on p. 2 before answering.
