Describe in your own words the speaker’s main argument:

Identify three (3) main points that the speaker made, in order to support that argument:
1.
2.
3.

Discuss the speaker’s use of evidence. Did he or she make “good” use of example, in your opinion? Why or why not?

Were you convinced by the speaker’s argument? Why or Why not? (Be specific.)

Write one good question that you still have about the film (or about the lecture), one that you wish the speaker might have addressed or developed more fully.
