Grading and Staff
ENVIRONMENT 201  Autumn 2005
Ecology and Conservation: Humans in the Environment

Course Grading

1. Midterm exam (Oct 31) 100
2. Final exam (Dec 15; 8:30–9:30) 100
3. CASE STUDIES
   a. Human Foods
      i. Short report (Due date: Oct 12–13 or 19–20) oral 10 written 20 30
      ii. Personal essay (Due date: Nov 2–3) essay 30 30
   b. Earth Charter (Due date: Nov 30–Dec 1) essay 35 35
4. Reading assignment cards 14 sessions at 5 pts/session 70
5. Discussion grade (Participation in and contributions to weekly section discussion) 35

TOTAL 400

Faculty
James R. Karr, Professor of Aquatic Sciences; Professor of Biology; Adjunct Professor of Civil Engineering, Environmental Health, and Public Affairs
Office: 214 Fishery Sciences Office hours: After lecture F or by appointment
Telephone: 685-4784 Email: jrkarr@u.washington.edu Mailstop: Box 355020

Teaching Assistants
Astrid Cerny Office: 258 MGH Office hours: W 2:30–3:30, F 1:30–2:30
Email: acerny@u.washington.edu Mailstop: 353550
Janessa Graves Office: 258 MGH Office hours: MW, 11:30–12:20
Email: janessa@u.washington.edu Mailstop: Box 357234
Leila Sievanen Office: 258 MGH Office hours: MW, 11:30–12:20
Email: leilas@u.washington.edu Mailstop: Box 353100

Other Messages and Policies
1. Course web page: http://courses.washington.edu/envir201
2. Late assignments will have the grade reduced by 10% for each day.
3. Minimum points to receive a passing grade: 50% of 400 (200).
4. No electronic submission of essays or other assignments.
5. Please turn-off cell phones before entering class.