

Public Spaces | Public Life: Copenhagen / Malmö Study Tour

Tentative Study Tour Dates: September 2 - 18, 2016

Anticipated Expenses (estimates only)

Flight	1200
Lodging	850
Local Transportation	300
Food and Drink - 17 days	600
Health Insurance (required)	35
Daish SIM card for smartphone	20
Discretionary (entertainment, supplies, shopping, etc.)	varies
Estimated Total	$1,805
*NOTE: THESE ARE ESTIMATES ONLY. Due to changing exchange rates, air travel and accommodation rates, these prices may vary. This budget is intended only to give an idea of anticipated costs.
 Most local transport and bike rental will be paid up-front by the TA. This amount, plus any overage on housing, will be deducted from each person's $1500 stipend.
The program will cover all group tour costs, group museum admissions and at least two group dinners. There is no program or instruction fee.
Some international students may be required to secure a visa in order to travel to Denmark and Sweden.
Provided by Scan I Design Foundation (distributed only when enrolled during summer or fall term)	1500
Possible need-based scholarship ($500 - $1000)	1000
Total Possible Scan Design Foundation Support	$2,500
Potential out-of-pocket cost to each student	$500 - $1,500